

COVID-19 Funeral Assistance Briefing

April 9, 2021

FEMA

Overview

- As a result of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 and the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, FEMA will provide financial assistance for funeral costs specifically related to Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) for funeral expenses incurred after January 20, 2020, at a 100% federal cost share.
- This assistance is a category of the Other Needs Assistance provision of FEMA's Individual Assistance (IA), Individuals and Households Program.

FEMA

COVID-19 Funeral Assistance Interim Policy

- Funeral Assistance implemented nationwide on April 12, 2021.
- FEMA will administer this program at the National level.
- Decedent's place of death dictates which disaster declaration applies.
- Tribal members will be eligible to apply through the state, territorial, or Washington D.C. major disaster declarations for COVID-19.
- Payments are direct to individuals across the nation, regardless of which declaration applies.

General Conditions of Eligibility

- Applicants must be a U.S. citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien who incurred funeral expenses after January 20, 2020.
- No requirement for the decedent to have been a U.S. citizen, non-citizen national, or qualified alien.
- FEMA must be able to verify the applicant's identity.
- The death occurred in the United States, including U.S. territories or the District of Columbia.
- The death must be attributed to COVID-19 in the state or territory in which the death occurred, as indicated on the death certificate.
- Funeral expenses must not be covered by another source (i.e., funeral or burial insurance, financial assistance from voluntary agencies, other applicable government programs/agencies, or other entities).

Documentation Requirements

- Applicants must submit all required documentation before FEMA will award Funeral Assistance.
 - Death certificate: The death certificate must indicate the death “may have been caused by” or “was likely a result of” COVID-19 or COVID-19-like symptoms. Similar phrases that indicate a high likelihood of COVID-19 are considered sufficient attribution.
 - Proof of funeral expenses: Documentation (receipts, funeral home contract, etc.) must include the applicant’s name as the responsible person for the expense, the decedent’s name, the amount of funeral expenses, and that funeral expenses were incurred after January 20, 2020.
 - Insurance or other funeral benefits: COVID-19 Funeral Assistance may not duplicate benefits received from burial or funeral insurance, or financial assistance received from voluntary agencies, federal/state/local/tribal/territorial government programs or agencies, or other sources.

FEMA

Funeral Assistance Awards

- Funeral expenses will be reimbursed up to a maximum amount of $9,000 per decedent.
- FEMA will only award funeral assistance for a decedent on a single registration. This assistance is limited to a maximum financial amount of $9,000 per funeral and a maximum of $35,500 per registration per state or territory.
- Funeral assistance is intended to assist with expenses for funeral services and interment or cremation.
- Any assistance received from another source will be deducted from the funeral assistance award.
- An applicant may apply for multiple decedents under a single registration or multiple registrations for deaths that occurred in different states or territories.
